There's no harm in having nothing to say, just try not to say it out loud....

The true magnitude of life is in the little things we say and do....

EDITORIAL COMMENT

I repeat, I can not do this newsletter alone. This space is yours but I shall use it for my comments.

It has always been customary for AA entities to provide services to all groups (and meetings) whether these groups and meetings choose to participate or not. It is therefore noteworthy when a group decides to participate in any service entity,- district, intergroup, or committee. In January 2010 after a group business meeting, the Northern Bay Big Book Group decided to participate in Area 28 and District XXI. Of course the GSR was welcomed with open arms. These AA entities provide services that groups and meeting alone find it difficult to do.

The DEIG needs your support, both in bodies and money, especially when it comes to building committees, such as Function, Hotline, Meeting List, Literature, etc. We could do more together to express the Joy of Living. Sharing experience, strength, and hope can operate on many levels, and we need your participation.

One way that would help would be for the groups to get together and choose a zone representative for the clutch of local groups. Another way is for a volunteer to step forward and do the job until a structure can be created. Of course the local groups within a 30 to 45 minute drive could be more active and send an intergroup representative, or include the job as part of the secretary's. Bob D.
